EXPERIENCE

Mercator, Remote — Frontend Developer Intern

Nov 2023 - Present

Currently engaged in projects under the supervision of a senior developer and independently as an intern at Mercator, I collaborate effectively to enhance branding and elevate user experience through web design.

Phreotech, Remote — Frontend Developer Intern

July 2023 - September 2023

Proficient in Angular development, I actively contributed to the creation of responsive web applications, honed my Git version control skills, and collaborated effectively with a team of interns to enhance branding and user experience through web design.

EDUCATION

University of Benin, Edo — B.sc Geomatics

G.PA 4.9

October 2018 - April 2024

Acquired hands-on experience in engineering surveys and GIS, enhancing my ability to manage, analyze, and visualize geospatial data for various applications. Developed a keen eye for detail, precision, and spatial awareness, skills essential for optimizing data-driven solutions in geomatics and related fields.
